

Manifesto for Peace

1. Our Shared Truth

No one should lose a loved one to the violence of another.

Not the grandfather. Not the mother. Not the child.

Not today. Not tomorrow. Never again.

2. Our Promise

We acknowledge: Every person is precious.

Every tear, every embrace, every life matters.

We continue to believe in love.

Even when it seems weak – it is stronger than any weapon.

3. Our Responsibility

Peace begins within us – in our thoughts, words, and actions.

We take responsibility for how we treat each other.

We build bridges – not walls.

We heal what has been wounded – not with revenge, but with compassion.

4. Our Symbol

An open circle.

A radiant heart.

A rainbow.

For the world we love. For the world we live.

5. Our Invitation

We extend our hand to you – no matter where you live, what you believe, or what language you speak.

If you cherish peace, you are part of it.

Now. Here. Together.
